ABOUT TAMMY

Tammy started her career in Financial Services in 1993 and started her first company, The Financial Guides, in 2002. Her focus has always been on educating and getting to the root of the problem. Counseling has always been the number one job.

Tammy specializes in working with self-employed, solopreneurs, and small business owners. Teaching them the practical, put it into practise now things, they need to turn a passion into a successful, profitable, and sustainable business. Using a direct, honest, and down to earth approach she has been teaching and working one on one with businesses for decades.

In 2019, she started her second company, KSA Business, so that she devote more time and energy to helping solopreneurs and small business owners be successful in all areas of life and business faster and with less grief and stress.
